Argentinian-inspired Cuisine

Dorrego's brings the flavors and flair of Argentinean cuisine to San Antonio. Executive Chef Anthony Mesa has created an innovative menu for Dorrego's based on the rich culinary heritage of Argentina. The menu showcases fresh, local ingredients and an imaginative approach to steaks, seafood, fowl and more. Chef Mesa draws much of his inspiration for Dorrego's from his travels in Argentina. While there, he experienced the culinary influences from Spain, Italy, France and other cultures that are woven into both classic and modern Argentinean cuisine.

The restaurant's décor reflects the Spanish Colonial design and architectural heritage of Argentina, with a touch of Parisian bistro panache. It features Argentinean-style tile work and woods with dark metal accents. The new dining space includes a private dining area. Dorrego's also features a new restaurant bar, and the welcoming space is ideal for gathering and lingering.
